SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The publication entitled Playboy's Girls Of Summer is classified as objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The publication is a magazine focusing on the sexualised depiction of female nudity with a limited amount of text accompanying the images. The restriction on the publication's availability to an adult audience is considered the least level of restriction that can be placed on the publication's availability, consistent with the intent of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 to minimise likely injury to the public good.

In view of the content of the magazine, it is considered that the magazine should be marketed in a sealed package, with the classification given to the publication shown on the package.
